

Stove Kraft (P.) Ltd v. Asst. STO (Kerala)-HC

GST - On the ground that separate e-way bills have to be generated for each of the invoices, the goods and vehicle of the petitioner, a dealer, have been detained - petitioner before High Court.

Held: It is not the case that the e-way bill does not mention all the invoices - there may be practical difficulty for the department in tracking the invoices when multiple number of invoices are mentioned in the e-way bill generated - nonetheless, High Court is of the view that the goods and vehicle should be released to the petitioner upon execution of a simple bond - Government pleader submits that petitioner's case will be considered by respondent - Writ Petition is disposed of: High Court
